Description

The apartment is located in the elegant Piazza Antinori , inside a beautiful Palazzo, which dates back to the 14th century, when Florence was beginning to expand beyond its original Roman centre.

It was only later, towards the mid 15 th century, that Via Tornabuoni and Piazza Antinori were expanded and became the place where rich Florentines bought and refurbished large buildings to turn them into stately homes. Throughout the centuries, Palazzo was extensively remodelled, acquiring its present day aspect around the mid 18 th century.

Accommodation details:

The apartment has an unusual layout incorporating a staircase in the traditional Florentine gray stone.

It features the living room/dining room, elegantly furnished and decorated, a small fully equipped kitchen. There is staircase that leads from the entrance-hall to the first floor: at the top of the stairs, a bathroom with shower and just behind this, a laundry with washing machine. Continuing on the first level, is a luminous single room with built in cupboards and a window overlooking the roofs.

The master bedroom has a double king-sized bed set in an alcove and a walk in wardrobe. A short corridor leads to the twin bedroom with its own access to a terrace with outdoor furniture. The twin room has its own bathroom with tub and double sinks. A further flight of steps leads to the long altana , with windows on all sides and chairs to relax in. From here one accesses to three further terraces which offer spectacular views over the city and are equipped with garden furniture.

There is also a lift and day-time porter service.
