Description

Built in the 17th century on the terraced slopes just north of Lucca, this building - originally a convent - has been restored with great care.

The mature garden has old growth trees, roses, lavender and abundant bougainvillea. A beautiful and huge bougainvillea welcomes you with its glorious cascades of purple flowers. Casa al colle is very big property divided in sections : The owners live in one side of the big villa , occupying the ground and first floor on the left side while the rest of the house is for the guests use. Casa al colle can host up to 18 people. Ideal for family reunions or groups of friends , since the interiors can be divided into independent areas.

The villa includes its own private chapel making this an excellent venue for a romantic wedding party.

Shops, markets and very good restaurants are just minutes away in nearby villages and in Lucca.

The pool area and terraces offer panoramic views over the city and the valley below that are nothing short of spectacular.

ACCOMODATION DETAILS: 9 bedrooms/9 baths

GROUND FLOOR:: Central kitchen and a dining table that comfortably seats 18 guests. Separate laundry room and bathroom . Double doors open out to the terraces for dining al fresco at the outside umbrella tables.

This villa includes a charming private chapel as a reminder of its days as a convent.
