Description

Casa ALBA is part of a well restored ancient little hamlet, that stands on top of a hill in the heart of Chianti region. Still surrounded by vineyards, olive groves and woods on the watershed of the Elsa and Pesa valleys, Casa ALBA , used to be one independent dwelling of the hamlet and has its private entrance and garden , while the swimming pool has to be shared with the other guests.

Casa Alba is attached to its twin house Casa Tramonto.

The House is furnished with very traditional pieces , in perfect country tuscan style and equipped with all modern amenities.

Here the silent magic treasure of a thousand years of collaboration between a generous soil and an extraordinary line of descendants is lovingly preserved. Guests will be fillfulled with the incredible richness of history and natural beauty of this place, only 30 minutes drive from Florence.
