Description

Casa Le Barche is an outstanding home located in one of the wings of a fabulous historic property still owned by the same noble family. The Villa has always been a private home, a place of glamour and elegance; During their stay the guests will be able to visit all the main villa and the park, accompanied by the owners. The villa is a beautiful and untouched example of renaissance architectural balance. The enormous 16th century complex in Palladian style is structured with a central main building which is flanked on both sides by arcaded wings which frame an 'Italian' style garden with a fountain, Greek mythical statues, flower beds, lawns and bushes. The park (70.000 m2) is fully fenced and rich in wonderful plants and is pleasantly framed by long rows of hornbeams, lime trees and oak trees, which meet in front of a lovely dove cote, a chapel and a large fish pond with running water. Close to the main building, in a garden separated from the main park and reserved only for the guests, there is a swimming pool surrounded by oleanders, roses and hydrangeas. Inside Casa Le Barche guests can appreciate furniture and objects belonging to the family since 16th century, which have been conserved over the times, period paintings, objets d'arts and new matching furnishing create a warm and welcoming ambience. The house was restored and partially refurnished in 2004, the walls have original marble plaster surface and most rooms have parquet floor and plaster decorated ceilings, while the bathrooms are furnished with hand painted 'Vietri' tiles and high standard bath furniture. The Villa is located in a very well known wine area. The most selected wines here produced are: Pinot Bianco, Grigio and Nero, Cabernet Franc and Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Refosco and the well-known Prosecco. The villa has its own wine production as well.

Casa Le Barche is located inside the left arcaded wing of the villa .
