Description

Siena is one of the most appealing towns in Tuscany, with its well-conserved medieval streets and "piazzas" that are home to the annual festival of the Palio, a horserace which takes place in Siena's main square, the "Piazza del Campo". The Siena Rossa apartment is located in the city -only ten minutes walking distance from Piazza del Campo, the Cathedral, the Accademia Chigiana and all the most important museums and monuments. Completely renovated in May 2010, it has luminous and quiet rooms with large windows and it is furnished with style and refined taste.

The town of Siena boasts the privilege to have been declared by UNESCO as a part of the common cultural heritage of mankind.

The land of Brunello wine, Montalcino, the marvellous countryside of Val D' Orcia, the Chianti with its "pievi" and castles, are only few kms away .
