Description

Villa Aurora is an ancient beautifully restored Tuscan farmhouse surrounded by its own olive trees, vineyard and forest. The villa has been carefully renovated with beamed ceilings and terracotta floors. The house is furnished with antique pieces which make the atmosphere especially charming.

Villa Aurora offers its guests also a swimming pool during summer time and barbecue grill with all facilities for cooking on the terrace. During the month of November it is possible to pick the olives, watch them being pressed in the oil mill and have a taste of the delicious new olive oil that is such an essential part of our civilisation.

Villa Aurora is located close to the Pratomagno Valley, at 550 meters over the sea level, completely dipped in a typical Tuscany countryside, with panoramic positions on the Valdarno. From the Villa is easy to reach the large number of fascinating Tuscan towns.
