Description

From the 1983 the villa belongs to the same noble family and it has been completely renovated in 2010. The interiors style combines Art Nouveau with twenty first century chic. Surrounded by a lush green parkour, with a promenade flanked by many old palm trees, this place siis mply a small corner of paradise where people can relax and leisure .
The beaches are just 50 metres away, and Sorrento downtown within easy reach.

Special features inside the Villa include some fine paintings, elegant furniture, much of it made in the famous inlaid wood style by craftsmen from Sorrento. Beautiful glass chandeliers from Murano light up the cool and spacious public areas, and also highlight not just the floors with their original ceramic Vietri tiles, but also an unusual collection of old clay pots.

A buffet breakfast is included and served either outside on the terrace, or in the breakfast room where its panoramic windows onto the garden will allow you to stay in touch with nature.
