Description

This magnificent estate was once the summer retreat and wild boar hunting lodge of Count Cosimo Bernardini of Lucca. With many features of the property dating prior to the 18th century and still intact, Villa del Borgo today has been restored to its former glory and is once again an elegant and exclusive Tuscan haven- immersed, as it is, in a splendid parkland of ornamental ponds and antique fountains, time-forgotten courtyards and lemon-scented Italian gardens. With such a perfect symbiosis of beauty, tranquillity and comfort, this is a perfect venue for gatherings of friends or colleagues and family reunions.

The elegant furnishings and exquisite fabrics, the most up-to-date comforts, the extensive facilities and the discreet efficiency of Villa del Borgo staff make this place one of the top villas in Tuscany and is guaranteed to satisfy even the most discerning guests.

Accommodation Details:

With an array of delightful features and elegant furnishings, Villa del Borgo is fully heated and air-conditioned throughout and has twelve spacious bedrooms all with en-suite bath and shower rooms and linked to a central music system and equipped with telephone, hairdryer and bathrobes.

Ground Floor: The gracious living overflows to the many reception rooms ,located on this floor, featuring a wine library with private collection of Tuscan wines, card and billiard room, sun lounge, music room with log fireplace, grand dining room, drawing room/TV lounge and welcoming fully equipped Tuscan kitchen, the heart of the home. In the rustic courtyard there is also a guest office equipped with computer, printer, internet facilities, fax, central music and security/surveillance system as well as workout room with weight and cardiovascular training equipment.

First floor: The bedrooms are all located on the upper floor and some of them have jacuzzi tub.

Outdoor space: The estate offers large floodlit salt-water swimming pool, mountain bikes, al fresco dining in a genuine Italian piazza or beside age-old fountains and ornamental ponds.
