Description

Villa Fontegalli is located where the enchanting Amalfi Coast begins in one of the most beautiful places of the Sorrento Peninsula.

The sea and sky peacefully reveal their beauty to you. Their boundaries are barely defined, as the blue of the sky and the red and orange traces of the sun sparkle on the sea's gentle currents. Impressively, the Sirenuse Islands "Li Galli" and the Mediterranean Sea are displayed right in front of you.

A path winds down to Saint Elia village, dipping into a verdant valley full of Mediterranean oaks, brooms, carobs and wild olives, home to the fox and peregrine falcon.

The villa is within walking distance of excellent restaurants and a grocery store. There is much to do and see on the Amalfi Coast, but at the Villa you may be tempted to just spend a lot of time relaxing and taking in the endless views of the Mediterranean.

The town of Positano is only 7 kms away.

It has several balconies and terraces; suitable for a maximum of ten people (8+2).

The Villa has two floors, and a 4000 square meter (43,000 sq. ft) garden. The Villa is set behind an automatic wide gate with plenty of covered parking spaces. From the parking area, the house can be easily accessed (just one step) for all types of guests.

Villa Miragalli is fully furnished with personalized A/C and heating throughout the entire house and bedrooms, as well as a hot tub (which can be enjoyed all year), an infinity swimming pool, outside kitchen, gazebo, barbecue, hammock, Sky TV, Play Station 2, home theatre system, iPod station, alarm, free Wi-Fi (bring your notebook or smartphone), and all the comforts you need to make this your home away from home
