Description

Only a few kilometres from the beautiful 'White City' of Ostuni and the attractive beaches of the Adriatic coast, lies Villa Lamia, immersed in a prestigious complex that spans four hectares, named 'Sessana estate' which takes the name from the Latin 'sanus', meaning 'healthy' and brings to mind the idea of a healthy life in harmony with nature. The name 'lamia', instead, refers to a traditional stone building in the Puglia region. The Villa Lamia at 'Sessana estate' has been converted into a refined one-bedroom villa, with original stone-vaulted ceilings and 19th century paved flooring. This romantic retreat is surrounded by the spectacular hills of Itria Valley.
