Description

This is a spacious early 19th century frescoed villa designed by the famous Luccese architect, Lorenzo Nottolini, who was also responsible for the celebrated aqueduct which once brought water down to the city. Nestling in 50 acres of pine forests and olive groves, the property lies about 5 miles south of Lucca.

The property has extensive gardens, a floodlit tennis court, a large swimming pool and several different al fresco dining areas. There are wonderful views of the surrounding hills, forests, olive groves and the Alpi Apuane, sometimes snowcapped in the winter.

The house has hosted many celebrities in the past years . The current owner is an Englishwoman and her personal taste is very evident throughout the house. Typical English touches abound.

Whilst the surroundings are completely rural and tranquil, the villa sits right at the center of the picturesque village of Vorno so guests have the convenience and color of the village bar, shops and a charming restaurant all just five minutes walk away.

This is the ideal place for family reunions, anniversaries, or special events.

Having a Tuscan chef included, it's also adapt for people who love to spend a week dedicated to cooking lessons.
