Description

Villa Oliver lies on the rocky ridge, in one of the most evocative and spectacular background of the world :the natural stage of Positano, Praiano and the island of Li Galli. Since 1400, Positano and its unique location made every foreign people happy and soon they built their residence right there . Many artist, painter and poet found the quiet they where looking for; such as the German poet Stefan Andres (1937 - 1949). Escaped from Germany during the first world war he lived in Positano for several years and there he took inspiration by the beauty of the olive groves and the grapes.Today the road that brings at the Villa takes his name. Villa Oliver is a today a luxury resort opened to all people from all over the world. There you will feel a warm welcome with the maximum comfort and privacy.
