Description

Nested in the heart of the winemaking region of Chianti Classico, Villa Sancasciano is a magnificent 15th century villa built by the Machiavelli family, bearing the unmistakable hand of the Renaissance master, Michelangelo. Located only 20km south of Florence, The Villa is set within 600 acres of flourishing vineyards and olive groves. The private estate produces three award winning wines and a distinctive olive oil which you can taste and enjoy during your stay. The classic beauty of Villa Sancasciano combined with its history, art, and idyllic countryside setting create the perfect backdrop for any kind of event in Tuscany . Luxurious facilities complement the private villa, two swimming pools, unique sculptures gardens and breathtaking Tuscan views of the Duomo in Florence.

The Villa allows easy exploration to Florence, San Gimignano, or the magnificent city of Siena.

At Villa Sancasciano you can expect to find a completely restored and unique five-star luxury accommodation in Tuscany. Steeped in art, history, and culture, rooms are filled with original artwork and furniture collected from around the globe emulating the comfort of a private home.

There are 28 individually designed rooms and suites offer stunning views of the countryside, gardens or vineyards. A stay in the main villa will surround you with original Renaissance art and terraces offering sweeping views of the Tuscan landscape while our exclusive vineyard villa features private plunge pools.

The Villa offers an array of dining options from the loggia to its private restaurant, and from a picnic in the vineyard to dining poolside. Three swimming pools, deep soaking tubs, and oversized showers are the norm while all accommodations provide luxurious bathrooms with amenities from Ferragamo. All bedrooms are standard with Plasma television, Surround sound, Internet Access, and full Mini-bar.
